

29/04/2021

Welcome easing of pandemic-related restrictions in Greece

Citizens in Greece received some welcome news this week, as the government eased pandemic-related restrictions on non-essential outdoor travel.

As of Great Thursday, no restrictions will apply to travel between municipalities, although a restriction on non-essential intra-state travel is still in force, and will continue until Bright Monday, the day after Holy Easter Sunday.