May 4, 2021 On Tuesday evening, His Beatitude Patriarch John X met with the Diocesan authorities and agents of Aleppo at the Theater of the Cathedral of Elija the Prophet.

At the beginning of the meeting, a short video was played, showing the churches within the diocese along with their parishes, structures, bodies and the development of works in them.

A patriarchal word from his Beatitude followed, through which he urged everyone to cooperate and collaborate, in order to promote the prosperity of the diocese in the light of Christ's Resurrection.

Thereafter, His Beatitude held a meeting with the Team of the Department of Ecumenical Relations and Development of the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch and All the East, urging them to remain steadfast in serving Jesus' younger brothers and sisters as well as all exploiting all available opportunities to support those in need.
