Man of God' to be screened at two US film festivals

The international film production “Man of God” will be among the awards contenders at this month’s Los Angeles Greek Film Festival, after the inspirational movie premiered at the 43rd Moscow Film Festival recently.

The film, based on the life and works of 20th century St. Nektarios of Aegina, will also be broadcast on the festival’s webpage twice, on May 22 and May 23.

The film is also entered in the competition portion of the Phoenix Film Festival, which will take place in August.

“Man of God” is a production of Simeon Entertainment, View Master Films, in cooperation with the Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopedi, the St. Maxim the Greek Institute, the Holy Metropolis of Mesogea & Lavreotiki and Eurogroup Ltd.

The film will debut in movie theaters around the world in 2021.
