Metropolitan of Messinia: Church must provide man in post-pandemic era with guidance

The Metropolitan of Messinia, His Eminence Chrysostomos, on Thursday addressed the 6th Delphi Economic Forum, which is taking place this week in the Greek capital. The Metropolitan spoke on the topic of “The Covid-19 Pandemic and the Church of Greece”.

His Eminence stressed that the Church must provide man in the post-pandemic era with criteria necessary to comprehend that progress and life are not exclusively linked with advancements in living standards, economic growth or social distinction.
