“How-to” Green Your Parish, Episode 4: Learning from our Parishes – St. Anna, Roseville, CA

This week’s “How-to” Green Your Parish episode features the parish of St. Anna Greek Orthodox Church in Roseville, California on “Learning from our Parishes.”

The “How-to” Green Your Parish series is an initiative of the Department of Inter-Orthodox, Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations. New episodes will be released weekly featuring ideas and ways to introduce creation care and sustainability in your parish and home. Ranging from practical to theological, each three-minute video offers a unique perspective on environmental stewardship through the knowledge and expertise of Orthodox Christians across the United States.

If you or your parish would like to be featured, please email

The Greening the Parish Resource Page features information to further support parishes and faithful. Visit the page here: https://www.goarch.org/society/greening-the-parish.

Check out the Orthodox Observer and the Department’s Facebook page each week for new videos and fresh posts on the environment from Scripture, the Lives of the Saints, and other Orthodox perspectives.
