14/05/2021

Archbishop of Australia underlines contribution of Church, Orthodox Clergy during Greek struggle of liberation

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, this week underlined the contribution of the Church and the Orthodox Clergy during the titanic Greek struggle against Ottoman rule, as this year marks the bicentennial of the commence of the Greek War of Independence.

The Archbishop delivered the address at an anniversary event organized on by the Parish of St. Catherine, in Mascot, Sydney.