18/05/2021

The Place of The Greek Revolution in Today's Greek Identity Webinar

In commemoration of the bicentennial of the Greek Revolution, the Department of Inter-Orthodox, Ecumenical, and Interfaith Relations is hosting a one-hour webinar on "The Place and Role of the Greek Revolution in Today's Greek Identity." His Excellency, Ambassador George Prevelakis, Permanent Representative of Greece to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development and Professor Emeritus at the Sorbonne University will be exploring this development on contemporary Greek identity – a multifaceted reality at the intersection of language, culture, religion, and history.

Join us on May 19, 2021 at 12 PM ET and find out more and register here: https://goarch.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_cg-seaK9ShaFel-D-nDoQw

200
Years of Freedom
The Place of the Greek Revolution in Today's Greek Identity
May 19, 2021
12 PM ET
Register
Featuring His Excellency, Ambassador George Prevelakis, Permanent Representative of Greece to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development Professor Emeritus, Sorbonne University Identity is a multifaceted reality at the intersection of language, culture, religion and history. This one hour webinar will examine the place and role of the Greek Revolution in today's Greek identity.

goarch.org

Saint Joseph the Hesychast Documentary
Click here to watch