24/05/2021

Ecumenical Patriarchate meets all Covid-19 precautions

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, this past week received a delegation from the Fatih district's public health services.

Members of the public health detail inspected the Ecumenical Patriarchate's premises in relation to measures in effect to prevent the spread of the Covid-19 virus, with the delegation expressing their satisfaction with the measures and precautions applied by the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

