As we continue to celebrate “God’s salvific Pascha,” I warmly congratulate you on your namesday, praying for your health, firmness of spirit, all successes and the perpetual aid of God in your difficult Patriarchal service.

Joining me with love in this greeting are my brother archpastors, members of the Chancery of the Synod of Bishops, clergy, monastics and the entire pious fulness of our Holy Church, humbly carrying the banner of Holy Russian Orthodoxy in the difficult circumstances abroad.

Asking your holy prayers, I remain with constant love in the Resurrected Christ,
