25/05/2021

3.3 million people in Greece given at least one Covid-19 vaccination

The Greek government on Tuesday announced that nearly 3.3 million people out of a population of approximately 11 million have received at least one dose of a Covid-19 vaccine. Fully vaccinated individuals exceed 1.8 million, with hospitals, clinics and vaccination centers in Greece now conducting a total of more than 100,000 vaccinations on a daily basis.