

20/02/2019

The Church has opened a soup kitchen for the needy in the city of Penza, Russia

The Church has opened a soup kitchen for the needy in the Russian city of Penza, offering meals for up to 60 people a day.

Local Orthodox hierarch Nikolai Groshev announced the creation of a charitable institution, called the “Source of Charity”, that will undertake various social services in the specific Russian region.

