Metropolitan of Philippi airs concerns over Kavala being left out of culture ministry’s projects involving Apostle Paul, Egnatia Way

The Metropolitan of Philippi, His Eminence Stefanos, has addressed a public letter to Culture Minister Lina Mendoni regarding two ministry projects, entitled “In the Footsteps of the Apostle Paul”, and, “The Cultural Egnatia Way”. The Hierarch expresses the concern and disappointment of residents of the port city of Kavala, over the fact that the area was left out of the two projects.
