04/06/2021

Archbishop’s message on occasion of World Environment Day

On the occasion of World Environment Day on Saturday, Archbishop Ieronymos noted that the root of the problem linked to environmental protection lies in the ignorance and indifference of man, and his unwillingness to overcome his egocentrism and his supposed “material bliss”.