Patriarch John X Receives French Ambassador Anne Grillo

At the Patriarchal Residence in Balamand, Patriarch John X received the French Ambassador Anne Grillo. His Beatitude welcomed the French Ambassador Grillo, who thanked Him for the warm welcome, and expressed her happiness due to visit.
His Beatitude presented with Her Excellency the Ambassador, the general situation and France’s important role in the region throughout history, and that France is still carrying out in the region, especially at this stage.
The discussion revolved around the concern over Lebanon and its current state, as the two sides discussed with difficulty and the subtleness the ongoing stage.
His Beatitude insisted before Ambassador Grillo that a quick solution to the difficult Lebanese situation must be found, to ensure a decent life for its people, and that a government must be formed in the soonest possible time.
He also stressed the importance of the French initiative put forward by the French

President Emmanuel Macron, during his visit to Lebanon.
