11/06/2021

Feature posted today on historic Monastery of the Transfiguration of Christ at Sagmata

A feature has been posted today on the pages of the Orthodoxia News Agency on the historic Monastery of the Transfiguration of Christ the Savior, located at an altitude of more than 740 meters at on the slopes of Mt Sagmata, outside the south-central Greece city of Thebes.

A chapel located at the monastery is dedicated to St. Luke of Simferopol, where a holy relic of the saint and personal items are preserved.

Saint Joseph the Hesychast
Documentary
Click here to watch