

22/02/2019

Environment, School and Society - 10 Years of Environmental Actions

The Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew In this week referred to the Patriarchate of Constantinople's international initiatives for environmental protection around the globe. His All Holiness Bartholomew spoke at the opening of a conference entitled "Environment, School and Society - 10 Years of Environmental Actions", which includes the participation of more than 200 educators. The conference was held at the Zografio High School.