Keep Them Connected!

Help Our Graduates from the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of San Francisco Stay Connected to the Church

Are you graduating? Are you a young adult moving away from home?

Do you have a son, daughter, or grandchild graduating from High School? Do you know a loved one that will be leaving home for the first time to attend college, or do know someone already in college living away from home?

Thousands of our Orthodox youth graduate from High School and go away to schools across our country. While blessed with unprecedented educational opportunities, at the same time, many face difficult challenges in the environment of the college campus.

The Greek Orthodox Metropolis of San Francisco Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries wants to help maintain their connection to the Church!

The Greek Orthodox Metropolis of San Francisco Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries will make sure that an OrthodoxPriest and community near your student's college connects with your loved one. Feel free to reach out to Rev. Father Gary Kyriacou, Pastor of Youth and Young Adult Ministries or Johanna Duterte Carter, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries, for more information or assistance in being connected with a local parish.

In addition, many college campuses have an Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF) ministry.
For more information please visit their website: http://www.ocf.net/

The Metropolis Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries also offers many opportunities throughout the year for Orthodox young adults and college students to gather, enjoy fellowship, and continue to learn about the faith! Be sure to visit our website often for more information: http://gosfyouth.org/youngadults/

NOTE: Information on college enrollment and contact details will be held in strict confidence and not publicly shared.
