16/06/2021

Patriarch of Moscow & All Russia convenes Moscow Patriarchate’s supreme council

The Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, this week convened – via teleconference – the Moscow Patriarchate’s supreme council.

Issues on the agenda included a detailed report compiled by the Synodal department for ecclesiastical education, as well as an annual report detailing cooperation between parishes around the vast country and young people.

