

28/06/2021

Patriarch of All Romania Daniel: Devotion of saints to Holy Spirit demonstrates great diversity in their social standing, backgrounds

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, during his sermon on the occasion of the Sunday of All Saints, said the devotion of the saints to the Holy Spirit demonstrates the great diversity in their social standing and backgrounds, adding “...We have saints that were kings, shepherds, women and men, young people and the elderly.”

His Beatitude’s sermon came after the Divine Liturgy was celebrated at the Patriarchal residence’s chapel in Bucharest.