Two-year anniversary of enthronement of Archbishop of Australia Makarios

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, this week commemorated the two-year anniversary of his enthronement to the throne of the Greek Orthodox Church in the vast island continent.

On the occasion of the anniversary, the Archdiocese of Australia, in an announcement, said it prayed to Almighty God to grant the Archbishop good health, strength and prosperity in order to fulfill all the pious expectations of the Greek Orthodox flock of Australia.

On the occasion, Pemptousia television has posted several video features today about Archbishop Makarios, including his enthronement ceremony and an interview he granted to the Orthodoxia news agency.
