A promotional banner for a documentary film. On the left, there is a portrait of a man with a beard, likely Saint Joseph the Hesitant. To his right are several circular icons. The main text in the center reads "Святой Иосиф Исихаст" in a large, stylized font, followed by "Документальный фильм" in a smaller font. On the right side of the banner, there is a "Смотреть" (Watch) button with a hand cursor icon. The background of the banner is dark with some faint imagery.
