Orthodox Church gifts new home to mother of 10 in north Kosovo

The mother of 10 in the Kosovo & Metohije province this week was handed the keys to a new home, during a blessing ceremony officiated by the Bishop of Razka and Prizren, His Grace Theodosije, and with the blessing of the Patriarch of Serbia, His Holiness Porfirije.

Construction of the home for the family of Ana Vukovic was financed by the Orthodox Church in Kosovo and the Serbian government's office for the province. The residence lies in a predominately Serbian Orthodox enclave in the north of the province.
