23/07/2021

Man of God’ in movie theaters across Greece on Aug. 26

The award-winning movie “Man of God”, based on the life and works of St. Nektarios of Aegina, will debut in Greek cinemas on Aug. 26. The Hollywood production was shot in the greater Athens area and on the island of Aegina, where St. Nektarios founded a renowned monastery, a place that attracts thousands of pilgrims from around the world on an annual basis.