Archbishop of Great Britain Nikitas celebrates Divine Liturgy with Georgian Church's Archbishop of Dmanisi Zenon

The Archbishop of Thyateira and Great Britain, His Eminence Nikitas, on Sunday con-celebrated the Divine Liturgy at the Georgian Orthodox Church of the Nativity of Lord, following the kind invitation of the Georgian Church's Archbishop of Dmanisi, Great Britain and Ireland, His Eminence Zenon.

Following the service, the two hierarchs reaffirmed the Church's Eucharistic unity, as well as the fraternal love and fellowship in Christ, as expressed in and through the Divine Liturgy.

The ambassador of the Republic of Georgia to the United Kingdom was also present, along with many faithful.

The Divine Liturgy was celebrated in Georgian, Greek, and English.
