

05/03/2019

Metropolitan Hilarion: "Christians are called to play a significant role in a world rife with animosity and divisions"

A round-table discussion took place in Moscow this week on the issue of Christians' role in peace efforts to defuse global and regional conflicts. In his address, His Eminence, Metropolitan Hilarion, referred to a significant role that Christians are called on to play in a world rife with animosity and divisions.