01/09/2021

Patriarchate of Romania continues initiatives aimed at Diaspora

The Patriarchate of Romania continues its efforts to keep in contact with as many Romanians in the diaspora as possible. The latest initiative is a photo exhibition focusing on Romanian history and Orthodox tradition in the country. On Tuesday, the Bishop of Ploesti, His Grace Varlaam, was present at the inauguration of such an exhibition, which comes amid a standing campaign by the Patriarchate to offer pastoral guidance to Romanians abroad.