02/09/2021

Orthodox Arts Festival from September in the U.K.

In the Orthodox world, a new online Festival has emerged.

ORTHODOX ARTS FESTIVAL will take place from September 17 to 26, 2021.

The Festival believes itself to be the biggest online International Festival of Orthodox Artists.
Its headquarters are in the United Kingdom.

The Festival will be the first to integrate High-Quality 3D technology on its numerous Virtual Reality Galleries (containing the finest in the world).
Over a hundred artists from the areas of Visual Arts, Iconography, Church Architecture, Interior Design, and Liturgical Church Furniture, Music, Chant, Film, Theater, and Literature join the Festival.

You will be able to view online the works of some of the world's most outstanding

Orthodox Artists.
Among them are renowned names of Orthodox artists from the world of Arts such as Jonathan Jackson, a five-time Emmy Award-winning actor, writer, and musician, the Author Paul Kingsnorth, the Painter / Iconographer George Kordis, the President of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra of Athens Nektaria Karantzi, Vassilis Tsambropoulos the Artistic Director and Principal Soloist of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra of Athens, as well as many other great artists, experts in their field.

Finally, a really wonderful addition to the program.
We will unveil the world's first 3D Virtual Reality Saints Museum.

For the time being, the site will be in English only for operational reasons.

For More information please contact:

Ioannis Antoniadis, Organizer
Orthodox Arts Festival
46A High Street, Glastonbury, BA6 9DX, UK
Tel: +44 (0) 1458 832911, Email: