Patriarch of Alexandria Theodoros continues visit to Cyprus

The Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Most Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, continued a visit to the eastern Mediterranean island of Cyprus this week, which he said was his “second home”.
The Patriarch of Alexandria was received on Tuesday by the Archbishop of Cyprus, His Beatitude Chrysostomos, followed by meetings with the island republic’s political leaders.

On his part, Cyprus Presidential Commissioner Photis Photiou assured the Patriarch of Alexandria of the continued support of the government of Cyprus to the Patriarchate.
