

“Introduction to the liturgical tradition of the Orthodox Church”

Finally, a training program by the liturgical studies, pastoral and social theology workshop at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki will take place over the coming period. The theme of the program is entitled “Introduction to the liturgical tradition of the Orthodox Church”. It aims to educate participants on the history, faith and liturgy of the Orthodox Church, as well as on the arts of hagiography, chanting, ecclesiastical poetry, religious architecture and archaeology.
