Teaching Children About 1821 Using New Technologies: “Learning, Creating and playing in the digital world”

The Department of Greek Education of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America will be offering a webinar Saturday September 25, 2021 1:00 pm EST. The webinar is presented by, The Museum of School Life and Education (Μουσείο Σχολικής Ζωής και Εκπαίδευσης)

Images and especially works of art are increasingly appearing in teaching and learning through the availability of digital images and theinstant access to technology and software. In this seminar we will be presented ideas and proposals for activities for the 200 years of the Greek revolution that will help students develop skills of observation, analysis, and interpretation. (works of art) using New Technology as a vehicle.

It has been 200 years since the Greek revolution of 1821. A revolution of warriors and ordinary people who fought with courage and strength for freedom.

Organizer: Niki Kantzou, Kindergarten Teacher, M.D.E. in the Pedagogical and Teaching Methodology of the Kindergarten, PhD candidate in Museum Education.

Date: Saturday, September 25th 2021, 1:00 pm EST

The presentation will be made through the Zoom platform
