22/09/2021

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew in Athens next November

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, will arrive in Athens in November, where he will co-officiate at a con-celebratory Divine Liturgy, accompanied by the Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos.

On Tuesday, during a meeting with the president of the Association of the Sacred Chanters of Greece, Konstantinos Politis, His All Holiness expressed his joy over the opportunity to again visit the Greek capital.

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople has accepted a fraternal invitation by the Archbishop of Athens to co-officiate on Sunday, November 21, on the occasion of the Great Feast of the Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple, at the Athens Metropolitan Cathedral.

The Ecumenical Patriarch’s visit to Athens will coincide with the occasion of the 30th anniversary of His ascension to the Patriarchal Throne.

