28/09/2021

Quake damages buildings on Crete, one fatality reported

A 5.8 on the Richter scale earthquake shook the large island of Crete on Monday morning, local time. One death was reported along with several injuries.
The fatality involves a construction worker who died when the dome of a small under-renovation chapel outside the town of Arkalohori collapsed, trapping him in the rubble.