28/09/2021

Patriarch of All Romania Daniel visits National Village Museum in Bucharest

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, over the weekend visited the National Village Museum in Bucharest, on the occasion of Romanian Village Day, which is annually commemorated on the last Sunday of September.

During his visit and tour of the museum, His Beatitude was briefed over the institution's' scope and initiatives by its general director.