Greek Revolution and Asia Minor Hellenism

On Thursday the 30th of September the Centre for Asia Minor Studies organises the online conference:

The Greek Revolution and Asia Minor Hellenism : Expectations, Contributions and Impacts.
Drawing on contemporary historiography and analyzing important historical sources, ten academics and researchers from Greece and abroad examine the impact of the Greek Revolution of 1821 on Asia Minor and the contribution of the Asia Minor Greeks to the events of that period.
The conference is held under the auspices of “Greece 2021” Committee.
➡Panels A and B will be held in Greek. Panel C will be held in English.
