Academic year begins for all schools affiliated with Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Albania

Monday marked the beginning of the new academic year for the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Albania, with lessons commencing in all of the parish and ecclesiastical schools operated by the Archdiocese through its Breath of Love Foundation.

Some 700 children are already registered in the Church's pre-schools and kindergartens, while roughly 2,000 pupils are enrolled in primary and secondary schools throughout the country.
