01/10/2021

Health ministry leadership thanks Archbishop Ieronymos for Church of Greece’s stance on issue of vaccinations

The Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, met today with the leadership of the country’s health ministry, with talks focusing almost exclusively on the management of the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic in Greece.
Both the minister and deputy minister thanked the Archbishop for the Church of Greece’s statements in favor of people getting vaccinated for the Covid-19 virus.