15/10/2021

Greek culture minister tours Orthodox Center of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Chambesy

Greece’s culture minister, Lina Mendoni, accompanied by the country’s Consul General in Geneva, Alexandros Gennimatas, on Thursday toured the Orthodox Center of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in the Swiss town of Chambesy.
A delegation from Greece’s culture ministry travelled to Switzerland this week for a series of events in honor of Ioannis Kapodistrias, the first governor of the modern Greece state and one of the framers of the Swiss constitution.

Mendoni was welcomed by the Head of the Orthodox Center, Metropolitan Maximos of Switzerland, accompanied by executives and associates of the Patriarchal Institution.