

15/03/2019

Church of Greece at international tourism conference

In Moscow, a delegation of the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece wound up a particularly successful presence at an international tourism conference that took place in the Russian capital over the past week. The MITT conference concluded on Friday.