'Man of God' biopic of St. Nektarios of Aegina opens in Russia and Serbia

The international production "Man of God" was playing in movie theaters across Russia and Serbia this week and before large audiences.

The film, written and directed by Yelena Popovic and produced by Symeon Entertainment and the St. Maximus the Greek Institute, is based on the life, works and trials of St. Nektarios of Aegina.

"Man of God" set box office records in Greece and Cyprus this season, after opening on Aug. 26.

