Metropolitan of Patras Chrysostomos recounts life, works and personality of reposed Archbishop Christodoudos

The Metropolitan of Patras, His Eminence Chrysostomos, this week recounted the life, works and personality of reposed Archbishop of Athens Christodoudos, on the occasion of the remembrance of St. Christodoulos Latrinos, Wonder-worker of Patmos.

Metropolitan Chrysostomos, who for years ministered by the side of the reposed Archbishop, called on the faithful to always pray for the soul of the unforgettable shephard, saying the reposed in the Lord Christodoulos left an indelible mark as a Greek Orthodox hierarch and Archbishop.
