Annual pupils’ parade in Piraeus on occasion of ‘Oxi Day’

The annual pupils’ parade in the port city of Piraeus, held on the occasion of the Oct. 28 national holiday in the country, took place on Thursday before local office-holders, representatives of the Church and thousands of local residents.

In the morning, a con-celebratory Doxology service was officiated by the Metropolitan of Piraeus, His Eminence Serapheim, at the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in the port city.
