Three SE Athens mayors express support for Archimandrite Alexios as new Glyfada Metropolitan

Three mayors of municipalities in southeast coastal Athens have publicly endorsed the candidacy of Archimandrite Alexios Psoinos for the post of new Metropolitan of the Glyfada-Helleniko-Voula-Vouliagmeni and Vari Holy Metropolis.

Alexios is currently the first secretary of the specific Metropolis.

The three mayors addressed a relevant letter to members of the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece’s permanent Holy Synod.
Holy Synod hierarchs are due to elect a new Metropolitan, less than a month after the passing of Metropolitan Pavlos last month.
