15/11/2021

Three new Church of Greece Metropolitans enthroned over the weekend

Three new Metropolitans of the Autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece were enthroned over the weekend, and specifically the Metropolitan of Lagada, His Eminence Platonas, the Metropolitan of Kastoria, His Eminence Kallinikos and the Metropolitan of Peristeri, Grigorios.

The Hierarchs asked congregants during their first Divine Liturgies in their respective ecclesiastical jurisdictions for their support and love, in order to jointly toil for the Church, while stating that their goals is a continuation of the work of their predecessors and the greatest possible interaction with the faithful amid this time of tribulation due to the pandemic.