Announcement on dour anniversary of declaration of Turkish-Cypriot pseudo-state

The Metropolis of Constantia and Ammohostos this week issued an announcement on the dour 38th anniversary of the declaration of a Turkish-Cypriot pseudo-state in the Turkish-occupied areas of the eastern Mediterranean island republic.

In the announcement, the Holy Metropolis calls on the international community not to ignore Turkey’s continuing belligerence and illegal military occupation of one-third of Cyprus.
