Greek FM Dendias Dendias visits Greek Orthodox parish, school in Ghana

Greek Foreign Minister Nikos Dendias continued a tour of west Africa this week, visiting Ghana on Thursday and specifically the town of Tema, where he visited the Greek Orthodox Church of St. Nicholas.

Greece’s top diplomat was welcomed by the Metropolitan of Accra, His Eminence Petros. He later toured the affiliated Greek-language school of St. Nicholas, where he was greeted by teachers and pupils.
