The first place of worship dedicated to St. Kallinikos of Edessa was inaugurated within the northern Greece Metropolis of Edessa, Pella and Almopias.
Specifically, His Eminence Metropolitan Joel on Sunday morning officiated at the dedication ceremony of the chapel of St. Kallinikos, in the village of Mesimeri.

In June 2020, the Sacred and Holy Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople canonized 20th-century Holy Hierarch Kallinikos of Edessa.
