

22/03/2019

Report cites widespread persecution of Christians in some countries

More reports of widespread persecutions of Christians around the world surfaced this week, especially against Christian women and girls, who face severe harassment not only over their faith but also due to their gender, including rape, kidnapping, forced marriage and abortion and even death.