09/12/2021

Romanian Academy recognizes Church for its contribution to country’s culture

The Academy of Romania this week again recognized the Romanian Orthodox Church for its contributions, while presenting awards to scientists, scholars and personalities of the arts and letters for their contributions to Romanian culture and science.

Among others, Rev. Fr. Florin Serbanescu was honored for his work “Values of Romanian Orthodoxy: the Căldărusani Monastery”.