13/12/2021

Continuing charity work by Archdiocese of Belgrade & Karlovac

The Patriarchate of Serbia over the weekend again organized the delivery of 100 relief packages to needy families, especially those with many children in the capital of Belgrade.

The latest initiative was headed by the Bishop of Hvosno, His Grace Justin, supported by a local supermarket chain and assisted by theology students, part of continuing charity efforts by the Archdiocese of Belgrade and Karlovac.