Bishop Filotheos speaks to Pemptousia over this week’s historic presence by Greek PM at permanent Holy Synod session

In the wake of this week’s historic presence of Greek Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis at a session of the Permanent Holy Synod of the Autocephalous Church of Greece, the Bishop of Oreon, His Grace Filotheos, on Friday referred to the continued fruitful cooperation between Church and state in Greece, cooperation that he said will bear fruit.
His Grace also cited the need for distinct roles between Church and state to be very clear.

Bishop Filotheos spoke to the Pemptousia online radio station.
